TGLP 8 Consultation on the Review of Waiting Restrictions and Whitehaven Taxi Ranks

The Panel considered a consultation document received from the Cumbria County Council's Highway Department relating to the Review of Waiting Restrictions which proposed amendments to the taxi ranks within Whitehaven. The Panel also considered the views of the Copeland Taxi Owners' Association, two of whose representatives attended the Panel meeting. The County Council asked for the Council's comments so that they could be incorporated into a report to be presented to the Copeland Local Area Committee for decision. Following a discussion where various comments were agreed it was:

RESOLVED – That a letter be sent to the County Council expressing the comments of the Panel.

The meeting closed at 3.00pm.
