Millom Town Deal Board

Principles for Disclosure

The following Principles do not form part of the Declaration of Interests Procedure, but are designed to give guidance where required and to help you decide what interests you should declare in compliance with the Procedure.

- A. The Town Deal Board is overseeing a multi-million-pound investment programme funded with public money that will provide new infrastructure and benefits to the community. As such, we need to act in such a way that –
  - a. Maintains public trust in the project;
  - b. Avoids any suggestion that personal interests have influenced decisions of the Town Deal Board;
  - c. Avoids the risk of reputational harm to you, other members of the Town Deal Board and to the project as a whole.

- B. We should comply with the Nolan Principles of Public Life, which include the obligation to –
  - a. not act or take decisions in order to gain financial or other material benefits for ourselves, our family or friends;
  - b. disclose and resolve any interests and relationships;
  - c. be accountable to the public for our decisions and actions and submit ourselves to the scrutiny necessary to ensure this;
  - d. act and take decisions in an open and transparent manner.

- C. Declare all interests you may have in the work and decision-making of the Town Deal Board, not just those interests that you may think give rise to a conflict. An interest may be –
  - a. direct or indirect;
  - b. general or specific;
  - c. your interest or the interest of your Spouse/Partner, or
  - d. any other interest of you, your family or other persons connected with you which an objective member of the public might reasonably consider should be disclosed as being relevant to decisions to be taken by the Town Deal Board.

- D. A person connected with you will be someone with whom you have a close personal or financial relationship – normally a member of your family or household, a close friend or business associate. It is for you to decide who your connected persons may be and whether their interests should be declared as if they were your interests.

- E. Personal details of your family members and other persons connected with you will be redacted from the published register of interests.

- F. You are not required to declare an interest of which you are not aware – but you will be treated as being aware of interests of which you ought reasonably to be aware: you cannot turn a blind eye to something that a reasonable person would think you should have asked about.
- G. Interests should be declared by all members of the Town Deal Board and their nominated deputies.
- H. An interest may appear so small or indirect as not to be material and not worth declaring. Often the person with the interest is not best placed to make a decision whether the interest is material or not. The safest option will be to declare all interests and to let others decide on their materiality.
- I. Not every interest that is declared will give rise to a conflict. Where there is an actual or potential conflict, in many cases it may be sufficiently dealt with by declaring and registering the interest.
