1. Introduction

Copeland Borough Council are in the process of producing the Copeland Local Plan, which covers the period of 2021-2038 and includes planning policies and land allocations. The Local Plan will supersede and replace the Core Strategy and Development Management Policies 2013-2028 following its adoption, which is anticipated in Summer 2023.

The NPPF, paragraph 68 states that “Strategic policy-making authorities should have a clear understanding of the land available in their area through the preparation of a Strategic Housing Land Availability Assessment.”

The SHLAA performs the following roles:

- Identifies sites and broad locations within the Copeland Local Plan Area¹
- Assesses their deliverability by considering whether they are suitable and available and whether development is achievable
- Identifies key constraints to development based upon the latest evidence available
- Informs the housing allocations in the emerging Local Plan

This report provides an update to the Strategic Housing Land Availability Assessment (SHLAA) 2020. A number of evidence documents have been produced or updated since the previous SHLAA and this update takes those into account as well as emerging planning policy.

The SHLAA does not identify which sites should be allocated in the Local Plan and a site’s inclusion in the SHLAA does not indicate that planning permission for housing will be granted.

National Planning Practice Guidance (NPPG) notes that “the assessment needs to identify all sites and broad locations (regardless of the amount of development needed) in order to provide a complete audit of available land. It is therefore for the Local Plan to determine which deliverable sites are the most appropriate for allocation to meet housing needs.

1.1 Supporting Documents

The SHLAA sits alongside the Strategic Housing Market Assessment 2021 that identifies housing need across the borough, the Housing Trajectory 2022 which considers when housing is likely to be delivered on both allocated sites and those with planning permission, and a Five-Year Housing Land Statement 2022 which identifies whether housing needs can be met by deliverable sites over the 5-year period starting 1st April 2022.

2. Key Definitions

2.1 Deliverable

The NPPF Glossary provides the following definition of deliverable. “To be considered deliverable, sites for housing should be available now, offer a suitable location for development now, and be achievable with a realistic prospect that housing will be delivered on the site within five years. In particular: a) sites which do not involve major development and have planning permission, and all sites with detailed planning permission, should be considered deliverable until permission expires, unless there is clear evidence that homes will not be delivered within five years (for example because they are no longer viable, there is no longer a demand for the type of units or sites have long term phasing plans). b) where a site has outline planning permission for major development, has been allocated in a development plan, has a grant of permission in principle, or is identified on a brownfield register, it should only be considered deliverable where there is clear evidence that housing completions will begin on site within five years.”

2.2 Developable

The NPPF Glossary provides the following definition of developable. “To be considered developable, sites should be in a suitable location for housing development with a reasonable prospect that they will be available and could be viably developed at the point envisaged.”

2.3 Broad Locations

No definition is given for Broad Locations within national guidance, however the Council considers these to be large, strategic areas that contain a number of smaller sites where longer term growth could be delivered. They are also locations where, if at the Local Plan Review stage it becomes apparent that there are insufficient specific, deliverable sites to deliver the Local Plan Strategy. On their own, these individual sites are not considered to be suitable for development, but could be suitable when considered collectively in the future at a more strategic scale that may require strategic infrastructure (most current broad locations are linked to the potential route of the Whitehaven Relief Road).

It is highly unlikely that all potential Broad Locations would be required to come forward at any one time and if required a decision will be made at that time to ascertain the most suitable area. This will depend on a number of factors such as land availability, statutory consultee comments and whether funding has been identified to bring forward the Whitehaven Relief Road etc.

3. Methodology

The methodology used to assess sites follows guidance within the National Planning Policy Framework (NPPF) and National Planning Policy Guidance (NPPG). These documents identify what inputs and processes should lead to a robust assessment. They also recommend that developers and other key stakeholders should be involved from the early stages.

The Council prepared a Draft SHLAA Methodology in 2019. A workshop was held in September 2019 to discuss and review the draft methodology which was attended by developers, planning consultants and neighbouring authorities. The 2019 Interim SHLAA and Methodology Consultation Report² includes a summary of the findings from the workshop and was produced at the same time as the Local Plan Issues and Options Draft in November 2019.

3.1 Identifying Sites

To identify potential sites for consideration, officers undertook a desktop survey that draws on the numerous land use sources including:

- Previous submitted requests received since the Last Local Plan (2001 -2016) was adopted; either as new sites or settlement boundary extensions
- Suitable allocated sites that remain undeveloped
- Surplus employment land where there has been no developer interest
- Ordnance Survey (OS) mapping and aerial photography (desktop research)
- Planning Permissions for housing and economic development that are unimplemented or under construction
- Planning applications that have been refused or withdrawn
- Land in the local authority's ownership
- Surplus and likely to become surplus public sector land

- Vacant and derelict land and buildings (Including Brownfield Land Register)
- Under- utilised facilities such as garages
- Large scale redevelopment and redesign of existing residential or economic areas

A number of call for sites were also undertaken in 2017, 2019 (at Issues and Options stage) and in 2020 (at Preferred Options stage) where landowners or other interested parties had the opportunity to put forward additional land for consideration.

Excluded Sites

The following site typologies have been excluded from the SHLAA assessment due to their size or the fact that their development would be contrary to national planning policy and guidance:

- Sites below a 0.25ha threshold
- Sites where a minimum of 50% falls within flood zones 2/3, where the remaining area outside of flood zones 2/3 is less than 0.25ha (with the exclusion of town centre regeneration sites that may be acceptable through appropriate design)
- Sites within a SSSI, SPA, SAC, Ramsar
- Sites within an unsustainable and isolated location in the open countryside away from key services, (such development would be contrary to Section 29 of the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act which states that authorities preparing plans must do so

“with the objective of contributing to the achievement of sustainable development” and National Planning Policy.) When determining whether the site was in an open countryside location consideration was given to the Settlement Hierarchy within the emerging Local Plan.

3.2 Availability

Where sites have been held in the Council’s database for more than five years landowners were initially contacted to ensure their sites are still available. Consideration has also been given to the presence of any legal or ownership impediments to development e.g. ransom strips etc. which may affect the availability of a site. Sites which are unavailable have been categorised as being undeliverable.

The presence of a planning permission for an alternative use does not automatically render the site unavailable if the landowner/applicant has indicated the permission is not likely to be implemented. The following reason(s) have been used to determine that a site is not available:

- The site is already in an active use
- The landowner has not indicated an intention to develop or sell the site for housing
- The site is in multiple ownerships and not all owners have indicated an intention to develop the site
- There are ransom strips or existing tenancies

³ The indicative yield is an assumption of what a site may be able to deliver and may vary based on land constraints and the development proposed.

3.3 Suitability

Paragraph 18 of the NPPG states that “A site or broad location can be considered suitable if it would provide an appropriate location for development when considered against the relevant constraints and their potential to be mitigated.” It also states that sites should be assessed against current (depending on how up to date they are) and emerging planning policy (depending upon how likely these are to change).

Constraints to delivery have been assessed through a desk top study and site visits undertaken to determine suitability. Information on the following has been gathered and recorded in a SHLAA database.

- Site size, boundaries and location
- Indicative housing yield (based on an assumption of 25 dwellings per hectare)³
- Current land use and character
- Land uses and character of surrounding area
- Physical constraints (e.g. access, contamination, steep slopes, flooding, natural features of significance, location of infrastructure/utilities)
- Potential environmental constraints including potential habitats and landscape impacts
- Potential impacts upon residential amenity (e.g. if the site is located next to an unsympathetic use or the development would result in the loss of protected open space)

- Where relevant, development progress (e.g. ground works completed, number of units started, number of units completed)

As part of this exercise, the following information sources have also been considered:

- Strategic Flood Risk Assessment (2021)
- Copeland Open Space Assessment (2020 and 2022 update)
- Copeland Landscape Character Assessment (2021)
- Copeland Settlement Landscape Character Assessment (2021)
- EA Flood Maps
- Previous Statutory Consultee Comments
- High level Heritage Officer comments
- Site submission forms

3.4 Achievability

National policy and guidance require consideration of achievability (including viability). In order for a development to be classed as achievable, there must be a reasonable prospect that the development will be delivered at the time envisaged. Whilst it would be difficult, and a poor use of public resources, to test the viability of every site within the SHLAA, Council Officers have therefore made a high level judgement on whether the constraints on each site would likely render a site unviable.

4. Results

The following tables list the deliverable, developable, part developable, Broad Locations, excluded and non-developable sites that have been considered.

Table 5 sets out the reasons why non-developable sites have been categorised as such:

- Contrary to Strategy – Settlement Boundary: Identifies whether the site is located within or outside settlement boundaries identified within the Local Plan 2021-2038.
- Protected Open Space: Identifies whether the site is identified as a Protected Open Space within the Open Space Assessment 2020 and is designated for such use within the Local Plan 2021-2038.
- Landscape Constraints: Identifies whether development would be contrary to advice within the Settlement Landscape Character Assessment 2021. It should be noted that development on sites located within the open countryside may also be contrary to the Landscape Character Assessment 2021 and this document should be read alongside the SHLAA.
- Suitability Flood Risk: Parts of the site are at risk from flooding and are located within FRZ2 and/or FRZ3. Allocating the site, when there are suitable alternatives to enable the delivery of the Local Plan, would be contrary to the Local Plan Strategy and national policy which directs development away from areas of existing and future flood risk.

Strategic Housing Land Availability Assessment 2022

- Amenity Impacts: The site would offer a poor level of residential amenity for future residents given its location in proximity to surrounding employment or industrial uses. A site could also have amenity impacts if development would result in the loss of protected open space, such as amenity greenspace.
- Settlement character Impacts: Development of the site would be harmful to the character of the settlement identified in the Settlement Landscape Character Assessment.
- Heritage Impacts: The Council's Heritage Officer has identified that development of the site may have adverse impacts on nearby heritage assets, including listed buildings or conservation areas.
- Unacceptable intrusion into Open Countryside: Development of the site would constitute an unacceptable intrusion into the open countryside extending the settlement significantly in a particular direction with the site being poorly related, and poorly connected to the existing settlement.
- Landlocked site: The site appears to be surrounded on all sides by third party land and no suitable access is available.
- Notes: This section identifies any additional constraints identified through the desktop survey and site visits, such as sewer crossings, poor access etc.
