Appeals to the Secretary of State

An appeal can be made to the Secretary of State if the hazardous substances authority:

- refuses to grant consent;
- refuses an application for a continuation of consent upon change in ownership of part of the land;
- refuses to grant any consent, agreement or approval required by a condition imposed on a consent;
- refuses an application to vary or remove conditions attached to a previous grant of consent;
- grants consent but imposes conditions which are unacceptable to the applicant; or
- fails to reach a decision within the statutory time limit of 8 weeks, or any longer period agreed with the applicant.

Hazardous substances consent appeals may be made at any time within 6 months of the decision. Appeals can be made online at: <https://www.gov.uk/planning-inspectorate>
