

PLATES- PLOT A INVESTIGATION

Plate 1 – Western boundary of Plot A in foreground (approximately 5m beyond pavement), in vicinity of TP641A; View over area of former Fatty Alcohol Plant towards northwest.

Plate 2 – In vicinity of TP635A; Excavator located in the vicinity of TP624A.

Plate 3 – View from within Plot A in vicinity of WS115; view towards northeast with S5 Building in the background (right side).

Plate 4 – View from within Plot A in vicinity of WS115; view towards northeast with S5 Building in the background

Plate 5 - TP643A – located at the eastern boundary of the Fatty Alcohol Plant

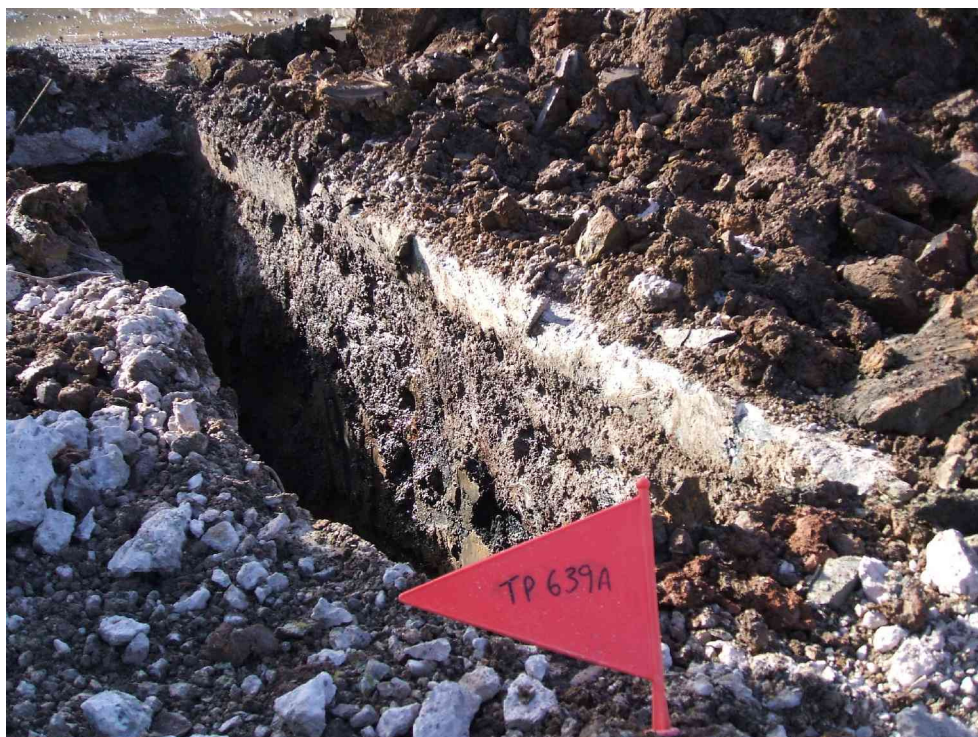

Plate 6 - TP639A – located within tank storage areas of Fatty Alcohol plant

Plate 7 - TP639A. Orange-grey sandy clay as drift deposit and ingressed water at base of trial pit (excavation terminated at 3m bgl).

Plate 8 - TP634A – located at the southeastern border of Plot A within former Dry and Wet Salts Area. About 0.2m of ingressed water (excavation terminated at 1.85m bgl).

Plate 9 – Spoil of TP634A. Silt with abundant gravel (0.35 to 1m bgl) overlying yellow brown silty clay.

Plate 10 – Cement clinker found in several locations within Plots A and D.