

Design Consideration

The new dwellings have been designed to be aligned with refurbishment works that were approved for the annex building, giving a modern street appeal anthracite windows and cladding, adding a mix of natural stone and kRender offers a trending pattern that most potential purchasees look for.

The current stock of adjacent dwelling is an eclectic mix of all types of materials, including brick & render. The product that our client is looking high end showpieces, This modern approach has been utilised in the surrounding area, the high grange development, and the jactrees meadows development.