

Tree Surgeon
John Ledgard

To whom it may concern,

It is my opinion that the trees concerned in this application are suffering from ash die back disease and should be removed to maintain the safety of individuals accessing the garden areas in which they stand. I would expect the trees to continue to decline over the coming years and the risk they pose will increase as their condition deteriorates.

Kind regards

John Ledgard