Good afternoon

Following the meeting of Millom Town Council last night (27th May 2026) I confirm that they have no objections in principle to this application, however, a councillor highlighted a point of local cultural interest regarding this property.

The house in question has been referenced in the works of a local poet, and as such holds a degree of literary and historical significance within the community. Please can this be taken into consideration as part of the planning process.

Regards

Cath
