FAO: Copeland Council

Thank you for consulting National Highways on this planning application.

Having reviewed the submitted details, National Highways considers that the scale and nature of this householder proposal would not give rise to any impacts on the safe or efficient operation of the Strategic Road Network (A595). The existing access arrangements remain unchanged, and all works are contained within the residential area. Therefore, National Highways offers no comments on this application.

Kind regards,

Isabel Garbutt, Assistant Spatial Planner
