

Whitehaven

approx 2008

One of a series of stunning views taken during a flyover of the town. While it looks up to date, the development of the Marina has continued since this was taken. House (far left) the 60's one that used to house the Dept of Social Security has been demolished and the Boatyard building erected in the area where the cars are in the image (bottom right). Also, the peak roofed building Bulwark Quay has been extended. House Whitehaven Marina Pier who manage the water
